OFFICIALS ARE MUCH PLEASED

The Oil Field Test Proves Very Satisfactory to the Navy.

Washington, Aug. 14.—(Special.)—Great interest was aroused among naval officers here by the news from San Francisco of the return of the steamer Mariposa, fitted with an oil-fuel burning plant, from her long voyage to Tahiti. Rear Admiral Melville, Lieutenant Commander Edwards, who has long been conducting experimental tests with oil fuel in the plants here, and others declared that the success of her trip demonstrated the practicability of the use of oil fuel. While the conditions aboard the merchant vessel are more favorable for the use of oil fuel than on a gunboat, cruiser or battleship, yet there are some questions which arise in common between naval and merchant vessels, and of these the problem of extreme heat generated by the combustion of oil is an important one and seems to have been satisfactorily disposed of in the case of the Mariposa. It is stated that passengers were able to visit the engine room without suffering great discomfort from the heat.

MAY ADOPT THE METRIC SYSTEM

Talk of Changing to the French Measurement, Seriously Considered.

Washington, Aug. 14.—(Special.)—Enthusiastic endorsement is given by government officials in Washington to the recent colonial conference in London in adopting resolutions making the metric system of weights and measures compulsory throughout the British empire. For years the adoption of the metric system has been advocated by officials of the Treasury department. At no time previous to the last session of Congress, however, was the matter taken up with such prospect of favorable action as last winter. A bill was favorably reported to the house, and is now on the calendar of that body, which provides that the system shall be used exclusively by the government departments after Jan. 1, 1904, and that four years later it shall be made the standard system of this country.

Joint Action. Great street was laid on the joint action of the United States and Great Britain in this matter, and the great mass of testimony which was taken before the house committee on coinage, weights and measures, both from government officials and American manufacturers was nearly all in favor of the adoption of the system, and all made the prediction that should the United States act first England would specially follow. The Decimal Association of Great Britain took a poll of the British house with the result that 259 members of parliament were openly in favor of adopting the system, and that forty more would vote that way.

SUSPECT ADMITS HE WAS THERE

Thompson Says That He Helped with Removing One Body.

HE BREAKS DOWN

Under Sweat Box System the Suspect Confesses What He Did.

HE BLAMES EDWARDS

(Special By Scripps-McIntae.) Chicago, August 14.—Oscar Thompson suspected of complicity in the murder of Minnie Mitchell and Mrs. Bartholin was again put through the sweat box process this morning and somewhat weakened under the severe cross-questioning.

Partially Confesses. In order to force a confession from him he was told that his fellow suspect, "Dad" Claffry, had told all. Thompson then broke down and said that if Claffry accused him of complicity it must be so but that he was unaware of having participated in any crime.

In A Haze. Thompson declares that the night the body was carried away from the Bartholin home that he was not conscious of any of his acts. He believed that he had been either hypnotized or doped by Milton Edwards, the boarder, who left for Denver, the day after the disappearance of Miss Mitchell.

Receive A Letter. One of the local papers today received a letter stating that Mrs. Bartholin, who had been buried, had been buried the body because he feared he would be accused of murdering her.

Not Mitchell's Body. The letter also stated that the body found in the weeds was not Miss Mitchell's body but that of a young woman who had changed clothes with Miss Mitchell for the purpose of misleading her parents as to her true whereabouts and making them believe she was dead.

Like Bartholin. The letter is written in a hand that is similar to that used by Bartholin, and the police are investigating this clue.

LOURDES WATER ADMITTED FREE

Board Decides That It Is Not Mineral, But Crude Material.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 14.—(Special.)—The board of classification of the United States general appraisers today announced a decision as to what is officially described as so-called holy water taken from the spring or well at Lourdes, France, which is contained in bottles not holding more than a quart. The water was imported last October, and it was reported by the appraiser at this port to be a natural mineral water, and the duty was assessed at 21 cents per gallon, with 1 cent per pound upon the bottles.

The importer, William Terves, claimed that the duty should be assessed at the rate of 10 per cent ad valorem, under the tariff provision for raw or unmanufactured articles not enumerated or provided for.

Not Mineral. The board finds that the water is not mineral water, but it also holds that the claim made by the importer is not sound. Instead it finds that the water is enumerated in the free list in paragraph 61, which covers "minerals, crude, or not advanced in value or condition by refining or grinding, or other process of manufacture, not specially provided for in this act."

Crude Material. The board holds that natural water is a crude material. The importer having failed to make his claim, however, the protest is overruled and duty will have to be paid in this instance, and in the case of future shipments of the holy water it will come in free.

DANE COUNTY HAS TWO CANDIDATES

Adams and Dahle Both Claim the Caucuses Which Are Held Today.

(Special To The Gazette.) Madison, Wis., Aug. 14.—The result of the congressional fight in the Second district hinges mainly on the caucuses to be held in Dane county this afternoon and evening. Dane has 38 of the 92 votes in the district convention, and will easily be able to swing enough of the other five counties to make a majority for whichever of its candidates carries the county. Hence the fight in Dane county, which is between the present congressman, Herman B. Dahle of Mt. Horeb, and ex-Dahle and Food Commissioner H. C. Adams of Wausau Park, has been one of the warmest of the many lively campaigns in Dane county.

Both Claim Victory. Both claim they will win, but it is believed the victory will go to Adams. Dahle's friends are banking on the Norwegian vote, but a considerable part of this is not conceded to the Mt. Horeb man. Both the LaFollette men and the conservatives are divided between the two candidates.

W. C. Letsch of Columbus, who is also in the race with the support of his home county, has friends in Dane who would like to see him nominated, largely on the reason that the election of an outside man would give them a better chance to go to Congress themselves at some future day.

This is the view with which John C. Nelson, Ernest N. Warner, and some other of Letsch's friends here, are credited. They have worked for the failed to carry their point.

Adams' Support. A portion of the conservative forces are working against Adams because he has not got onto their side of the political fence, and are working for Dahle because of his recent ruction with the governor, which they are using among the Norwegian voters with all possible effect. It is conceded that Adams will carry this city by a good majority, but the result depends on the county districts, Madison having but 16 of the 110 votes in the county convention, which meets here Aug. 21, at 2:30 p. m. The district convention will be held at Portage on Sept. 3.

BIG HARVESTER PLANTS COMBINE

ABSORBS FIVE INSTITUTIONS

Corporation is Capitalized at $120,000,000, of which $80,000,000 is in cash—No Stock Has Been Offered to the Public.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—Details of the formation, operating plans, scope and purpose of the International Harvester company were made public yesterday and include the immediate absorption of five of the largest harvesting machine and agricultural implement manufacturing concerns in the country, including the two great enterprises in Chicago. When the merger of these huge manufacturing plants is completed it is anticipated that the combination will reach out after the smaller concerns and ultimately invade Canada.

The headquarters of the combined company will be in Chicago.

Capital is $120,000,000. As announced with the filing of the articles of incorporation at Trenton, N. J., on Tuesday, the capitalization of the corporation is $120,000,000 common stock in shares of $100 each. The company is said to be capitalized upon an exceptionally conservative basis. Of its assets $80,000,000 are in cash working capital. The company will require no financing and there will be no offer of its stock to the public, all the cash required having been provided by its stockholders.

The International company is a merger of the following agricultural implement companies:

McCormick Harvesting Machine company.
Deering Harvester company.
Plano Manufacturing company.
Ward, Bushnell & Glessner company (Champion).
Milwaukee Harvesting company.

Officers and Directors.

The officers of the company are: President—Cyrus M. McCormick. Chairman of executive committee—Charles Deering.

Chairman of finance committee—George W. Perkins.
Vice presidents—Harold F. McCormick, James Deering, William H. Jones and John J. Glessner.
Secretary and treasurer—Richard F. Howe.

The directorate comprises the following financiers and business men: Cyrus Deering, Paul D. Cravath, William Deering, Charles Deering, James Deering, E. H. Gary, John J. Glessner, Richard F. Howe, Abram M. Hyatt, William H. Jones, Cyrus H. McCormick, Harold F. McCormick, Stanley McCormick, Eldridge M. Fowler, George W. Perkins, Norman B. Ream, Charles Steele and Leslie D. Ward.

Stock Becomes Cumulative.

The four largest companies not included in the consolidation are D. M. Osborne & Co. of Auburn, N. Y.; Johnstone Harvester company of Batavia, N. Y.; Walter A. Wood Moving and Reaping Machine company of Hoesick Falls, N. Y.; and Adair, Platt & Co. of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

According to the articles of incorporation of the new company if two-thirds of the stockholders vote an increase of stock such increase shall be common stock, and the original stock will at once become 6 per cent cumulative preferred. This provision was made to prevent additional stock being put ahead of the original stock.

At present it has its office at 51 Newark street, Hoboken, but it will have an office in New York as soon as a place is selected from several under consideration. The incorporation was effected through Guthrie, Cravath & Henderson of 40 Wall street.

The Incorporators.

The incorporators are men of prominence. Abram M. Hyatt is vice-president of the New York Security and Trust company; George W. Hebard, president of the Union Metallic Cartridge company and vice-president of the Westinghouse Electric company; Roland R. Dennis, a manufacturer of agricultural implements; Edward M. F. Miller, a member of the New York stock exchange and of the firm of Miller, De Haven & Townsend; Robert S. Green, a New Jersey lawyer; and Erasmus M. Cravath, brother of Paul D. Cravath.

The company starts without any financial obligations to the investing public, as not a share of its stock was offered for sale, and with a working cash capital of $80,000,000. The consolidation was effected without financing or underwriting, and New Jersey, by the incorporation, is richer by a fee of $24,000.

Kankakee, Ill., Aug. 14.—At the conclusion of their investigation into the management of the Illinois eastern hospital for insane the members of the state board of public charities hastily drafted a preliminary report extolling everything about the institution. The report was telephoned to Acting Governor Northcott at Springfield. It is as follows:

"In compliance with your direction and request of Aug. 5 the state board of public charities met at the Illinois eastern hospital for insane at Kankakee on Monday, Aug. 11, for the purpose of investigating charges made against officers and employees of the state institution.

Cruelties Do Not Exist.
"The board was in session two days and a half and heard all the evidence that was there with respect to said charges.

"In view of the alarming stories which have been circulated through the medium of the press as to the cruelty practiced upon patients in the hospital, we deem it our duty at the present time, in order that the relatives and friends of patients in the institution may feel that they are being well cared for, to say that we find upon the fullest investigation that no cruelties of any kind whatsoever are inflicted upon any of the patients in this institution.

Food Is Excellent.
"We further find that the food furnished them is of the best quality and sufficient in quantity and that the inmates are under the care and supervision of competent, intelligent and humane nurses and attendants.

"We shall be pleased to make to you, in due course of time, a full report of our findings and recommendations upon the subject matter complained of. This partial report is now made, as above stated, in order that it may go to the public that the inmates of the Kankakee hospital for the insane are humanely treated."

The report is signed by President William Jayne, Commissioners John Gibbons, Emory Moore, J. A. Glenn and A. S. Wright and Secretary J. Mack Tanner.

New Era in Chemistry.

An American Company Succeeds in Putting the Best Elements of the German "Traubenkur" or Grape Cure in Cheap, Convenient Form for General Use.

Good News for Sufferers From Dyspepsia Constipation, Liver Troubles or Nervous Prostration.

It is estimated that five million dollars were spent last year by Americans visiting the world-famed Traubenkur Grape Cure of the Rivers Rhine and Neckar in Germany. Their startling cures of Stomach and Liver Troubles and General Exhaustion have stirred the medical world, and forced physicians to recommend them and admit their wonderful work.

Recognizing the Grape Cure as the most potent factor in modern medicine. The Lightning Medicine Co., of Rock Island, after years of scientific experiment perfected an invigorating re-builder, the basis of which is the juice of the Grape, combined with herbs and fruits. It is nature's own tonic and builder. It combines all the best elements of the Traubenkur and is now placed on general sale in drug stores at the nominal price of 50 cents a bottle. It places within reach of all the benefits of the marvelous Traubenkur.

It means more to the sufferers from these diseases than any departure in medicine of the age. You can be convinced at once, because the first dose benefits.

We not only recommend Mull's Grape Tonic, but our faith in it is so unlimited that we will in all cases refund the money in full to all purchasers who are not benefitted by its use.

THESE ARE STRONG TESTIMONIALS.

For a mild Laxative and a general Family Medicine for man, woman or child, I consider Mull's Grape Tonic the superior of any remedy. It's pleasant to take, prompt in action, and the results are wonderful. Its power in building up a weak and run-down system is greater than any Cod Liver Oil preparation. I've tried them all. I write this, hoping that some of my friends will read and profit by it.

MRS. WM. STILES, Glenwood Springs, Colo.

I was an object of pity, for my suffering was great, before I began using Mull's Grape Tonic. The pain over my hips and in my back were frightful. The doctor pronounced it Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble, but he did not help me. The neighbors had given me up once this summer, but, thank God, I am here yet, and I know Mull's Grape Tonic saved me. God bless you and your wonderful medicine.

MRS. M. G. HONEYCUTT, Center, Texas.

GENTLEMEN: I send you the picture of my little daughter, Nettie, who has taken Mull's Grape Tonic and been greatly benefited by it. She was troubled with catarrh in the head, and her general health was very poor. Since taking this medicine she is much stronger and her catarrh is nearly gone. I will have her continue using your tonic until she is perfectly well.

ALEX. WHITE IS NOMINATED

ACCLAMATION IN THE FIRST DISTRICT.

IS A SPOONER SUPPORTER

Use His Best Judgment on Other Matters Pertaining to the Legislature.

The first assembly district, called for the purpose of nominating a republican candidate for the assembly from this district, convened at the circuit court room at 2 o'clock yesterday with the call issued by county committee. The convention was very harmonious, and all parties were obliterated by the nomination of Alex. White of Fulton as the nominee of the party from the first district.

A Compromise
The nomination was a compromise the part of both factions, the Laletto men taking this course to give votes for their candidate for governor. It was decided before the convention was called that no resolutions should be introduced and that no national politics should be brought out of the convention. This agreement was strictly adhered to.

The convention was called to order by W. A. Jackson, secretary of the county committee, on account of the absence of Chairman T. S. Nolan in jail.

White Named
M. A. Richardson of Milton Junction was nominated for chairman of the convention by H. W. Lee of Fulton and W. W. Andrew of Magnolia secretary by L. E. Gettle of Edgerton.

On motion of L. E. Gettle the chairman appointed a committee on credentials consisting of L. E. Gettle, Frank Heddles, H. C. Taylor, W. Fullen and C. H. Osborn, who reported at all those named in the list of delegates were entitled to a seat in the convention. None of the delegates present from the town of Rock and William Tripp was instructed to cast the full vote of the town, village or city they represented. The report of the committee on credentials was adopted as read.

Gettle's Speech
L. E. Gettle in a neat speech presented the name of Alex. White as the nominee for the assembly from the first district.

In his remarks Gettle stated that the harmonious course of this convention was due to all delegates being in favor of returning to the United States senate John C. Spooner. Of her questions that will come before the legislature they leave it absolute to the honor of the nominee, Alex. White. Frank Heddles of Evansville endorsed the nomination of Mr. White and L. E. Gettle moved that the secretary cast the ballot of the assembly for Alex. White as the candidate for the assembly from the first district.

White Accepts
Mr. White accepted the nomination a few words. He stated that he could give his unqualified support to the return of John C. Spooner to the United States senate. On motion the convention adjourned.

OLD Y. M. C. A. MAN VISITS THE CITY

FOUNDER OF THE LOCAL ASSOCIATION HERE.

HE NOW RESIDES IN DENVER

Talks Over By-Gone Days with J. T. Wright and Other Early Settlers.

W. G. Barrows, a former resident of this city, and at present a resident of Denver, is making a few days' visit in Janesville. Yesterday he dropped in for a few minutes at the Y. M. C. A. building and his visit brought up to some of those in whose memories reached back to the earlier days many recollections of the time when he was instrumental in organizing the association in this city.

Mr. Barrows expressed himself as delighted with the strides in advance that Janesville has taken since he knew it. He had always been aware that the city was remarkably favored in beauty of location, but even coming as he did from a country where a post station became a flourishing metropolis in a day, he was surprised at the progress that had been made. He was especially gratified that the city showed such solidity of business enterprise, that refinement and culture had been added in such a degree to its commercial activities.

Two Charter Members
Only two of the charter members of the association in this city, which dates from the fifties, were left to go over reminiscences of those younger days, J. T. Wright and Mr. Barrows. Mr. Wright had been recording secretary of the New York and Brooklyn association and when he came to this city he was very active in the founding of young men's societies.

Meetings were held at that time in rooms above what is at present W. C. Hart's saloon. In those days Thomas Wallcroft operated an ale brewery on the lower floor of the building and later on the business was bought and continued by J. G. Todd. The Y. M. C. A. continued to have its headquarters for several years on the second floor and the brewery on the first, and through all of this these two men, who met yesterday after many years, were among the foremost in pushing the organization.

At that time Mr. Barrows owned a hardware store on the corner where Hall, Sayles & Fifield are now located, but when he went to Colorado he took up the coal business. Mr. Wright tells many stories of the jovial good humor which Mr. Barrows exhibited in those days and remarks on the fact that he has changed but little in that respect.

GOLFERS TO GO TO ROCKFORD

Forty Mississippi Club Members Will Accompany the Team.

Arrangements have been made for the members of the Mississippi Golf club, who will go to Rockford tomorrow to leave on the 8:20 a. m. train on the Northwestern road. As far as can be learned there will be about forty club members in the party including ladies and gentlemen.

Team Not Strong
For various reasons the team will not be as strong as it should be as a number of the best players have business engagements that will keep them at home. Captain McGiffin is making every effort to get as strong a team as possible together so there will be a good chance of winning the match.

Difference in Grounds
It makes considerable difference whether a team is on its own grounds and has all of its good players to pick from, or is on a strange course with only a limited number of players.

For this reason Captain McGiffin is anxious to have every player who can possibly get away, go to Rockford tomorrow.

NEWS OF THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Gun Club Meet: The regular bi-weekly shoot of the Janesville Gun club was held yesterday afternoon at Athletic park. Two ten bird matches at singles and one ten bird match at doubles were shot off. Although no one succeeded in killing ten straight some pretty fair scores were made.

His Thumb Crushed: John Reed, a farmer, residing about a mile south of the school for the blind, caught his thumb in the gearing of a mowing machine he was using and had the end of it badly crushed. Dr. Woods thinks that he may be able to save the injured member.

A Pleasant Surprise: The members of the local camp M. W. of A. perpetrated a very pleasant surprise last evening on the Royal Neighbors who were holding a regular meeting. About the time the business session was completed the Woodmen marched in and took possession of the hall.

A literary program had been arranged and was carried out to the enjoyment of all present. The gentlemen also brought a good supply of light refreshments which added materially to the pleasure of the evening.

Crop Condition: J. T. Wright made a trip yesterday through various parts of Dane county and has a favorable account of the condition of the crops in that section of the state. At Oregon he said that the amount of grain in shock was astounding. The shocks were so numerous and close together that it seemed as though they almost touched. One of the large grain buyers told him that he had that day been buying oats at twenty-six cents, a decided decrease from the prevailing prices of the year.

At Evansville the number of new houses that were going up was astonishing. Many fine up-to-date residences were being built, and other improvements were being made. A number of fine cement sidewalks were under construction in the business streets.

RACES ARE HELD THIS AFTERNOON

MANY VISITORS IN CITY FOR THE EVENT.

THE TRACK IN GOOD SHAPE

St. Mary's Guard of Honor Fair Proves a Success in Many Ways.

Racing men who went over the track at the fair grounds this morning pronounced it in excellent shape for fast work, and the races under the auspices of the Guard of Honor of St. Mary's church which had been postponed from yesterday were run off this afternoon. The entire string of fast horses that had been entered were on the grounds and several later arrivals were also present.

It was thought inadvisable to attempt to play the base ball game that had been scheduled for this morning, and a damper was put on the rollicking sports and games that had been planned. It was almost impossible to carry out the booth idea so extensively as had been hoped. It was unfortunate that the weather on the appointed day was so threatening when such elaborate preparations had been made, and everything pointed toward some very excellent races. Many who had planned to come to the city from surrounding towns, and in the country, gave up the idea when the races were postponed. Music was furnished throughout the afternoon by the Imperial band.

Signatures of Boer Leaders.
The peace agreement between the British and Boer leaders is typewritten and is probably the first instrument of the kind. Louis Botha's signature is described as being in a "fine clerical hand." The others are all somewhat rougher, and Delarey's is stated to be the roughest of all. By the way, he splits his name up in three syllables, thus: de la Rey, while his redoubtable colleague of the late Free State signs himself Christian de Wet, also with a small "i."

THE NEWCOMER AT PICKVILLE

(Original.)

There is a flutter among the men of the mining town facetiously dubbed Pickville. Since the place has emerged from the grub (camp) into the butterfly (town) there have been but three women within its corporate limits, and they all married. Now comes a young woman styling herself Molly Grifton and sets up a small store. Mining supply dealers and gamblers are among the eligible men in Pickville, besides a young man, Arthur Huggins, in consumption, who came to save his life and to save souls, though he has neither church nor salary. The day after Molly Grifton's appearance every bachelor in the town was agog as to who would draw the prize, for it was not for a moment supposed that any good looking young woman would remain long in such a community without being appropriated. The question was sifted like an algebraic problem. The parson was not considered at all; the mine owners had wives in the east; the merchants were none of them proficients with the gun; the miners were too busy to look after their interests. This left the gamblers to fight it out among themselves.

The most dreaded among the gamblers was Fox Armstrong, and when he was observed to stop at Molly Grifton's store and buy up the first edition of the stock, cleaning out the shelves entirely, the rest of the profession concluded to keep at a safe distance. But one man in Pickville had the audacity to back against Fox Armstrong, and he was a young prospector named Stephen Bartlett. Stephen was the only man in town who seemed to find favor with the lady, and though he had not the means of wooing by trade, as in the case of Armstrong, the scale was turned in his favor by his manly and honest bearing, his cheerful disposition and certain ingenious traits which rendered him attractive to women. He was warned by his friends that as he valued his life he should refrain from any attention to Miss Molly.

As a firecracker has been known to kindle a city, so a meek and lowly man started the shooting that was bound in time to take place on account of Molly Grifton. Fox Armstrong one night ceased dealing faro at 11:30 o'clock on account of an indisposition, concluding that he would go to his room and turn in for the night early. Passing Molly Grifton's store, he was surprised, though all was dark within, to see the door standing ajar. Thinking that some one might be appropriating Molly's belongings and that he might win credit with her by capturing the thief, he sidled up to the door and listened. Low voices came from the room behind the store where Molly lived, the one a woman's, the other a man's. Armstrong at once assumed that his rival Bartlett was stealing a march upon him and got his revolver in position to handle readily at the exit of the intruder upon what he considered or wished to consider his own domain. Presently the two inside advanced to the shop.

"Come," said the girl, "take it. You are paying me by refusing."

"Do you suppose I could live a moment among these men if they knew you were furnishing me with money?"

"But they don't know it."

"Very well; I will take this. Next week I am going to work with a pick and shovel."

"You will do no such thing."

There was the sound of a kiss, and the man stepped into the street.

Great heavens! It was the parson! Unconscious of being observed—for Armstrong occupied a position where he could not be seen—Arthur Huggins watched his way toward his room. Armstrong followed him and when in the center of a bridge across the gulch accosted him:

"You white livered hypocrite!" he was beginning, but paused. A step was heard on the far end of the bridge, and in a few moments Stephen Bartlett came up and was recognized under the starlight.

"Parson Huggins and Fox Armstrong together here at this time of night! What do you mean?"

"That he has been skulking with Molly Grifton, which I don't permit."

"He has as good a right as you any way," said Stephen.

"You give me great joy in taking his part," sneered Armstrong. "I can't kill a man with a woman's soul in him, but I can take care of it."

The words were never finished. Had he not had something of the contempt for Bartlett that he had for the parson he would have fired first and talked afterward. Stephen knew full well that firing, and quick firing, was essential or he would be a dead man. Armstrong dropped.

Molly Grifton heard the shot and, fearing that Huggins might have been waylaid, rushed upon the bridge.

"Stephen! Arthur! What does it mean?"

"That dog," said Stephen, "assumes sole right to you. I have maintained that Parson Huggins or any man you choose has an equal right."

"This is all my fault," cried Huggins bitterly as Molly bent over the wounded gambler to assist him. "Molly is my sister. I came here to recover my health. Having no means, I was about to return when she came out to help me. Knowing that this community would not respect me for being helped by a woman, she took another name and concealed our relationship."

The next day the town of Pickville was startled with the news that Stephen Bartlett had downed Fox Armstrong and was going to marry Molly. The rest of the story was not divulged. SARAH PARKE TRIMMINGHAM.

STATE BANKERS HIT BRANCHES WOULD BUILD UP MONOPOLY

Smaller Institutions Would Be Swallowed by One Great Bank in New York City, Which Could Dictate Legislation to Its Liking.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 14.—The Wisconsin state bankers, in their annual convention, repudiated the proposed branch banking system and urged Wisconsin congressmen to vote against the Fowler bill.

The Wisconsin bankers also denounced the proposed asset banking currency.

The branch scheme was denounced as an attempt to form a great banking trust, which would in time dominate all political parties, dictate the tariff policy of the country, and control all industries.

John Schuette of Manitowish denounces the branch banking system as a simple attempt to form a banking trust. This, he said, would never be brought about, as congress would not dare to authorize it, and the bankers and people of the country would not permit it.

Attacks Fowler Bill.

Banker F. R. Frenz of Oshkosh then took the rostrum, and made a strong attack on the Fowler bill and the branch banking and asset currency ideas.

"There is no spilling of blood in this battle," said Mr. Frenz, "but the hosts of the east, of the Standard Oil company, and the Morgan and the Vanderbilts are advancing upon us, and they intend to sweep this country clean."

"The establishment of branch banks through the country would furnish the Standard Oil company the means to fight, cut the throat, and exterminate every small bank through the country."

"What the Standard Oil company did to the poor devils in the oil field who owed one or more small paying wells that is what it will do to you if you but give it the opportunity. Do you intend to unshackle this monster of branch banking to devour you?"

Banks Would Dominate.

"Do you know that the City Bank in New York with $500,000,000 would dominate this country if it had branch banks throughout the country? Do you know it would dictate the tariff, make or prevent wars, own all the ships, the railroads, the mines, and hold the whole country in the hollow of its hand?"

Secretary Joseph Chapman of the Minnesota Bankers' association addressed the convention, talking of the actual experience of the Minnesota bankers at their convention at Winnipeg, Canada, with the workings of the branch bank system. Mr. Chapman gave it as his opinion that there was little use in the east trying to convert the west to the branch bank system.

Chairman P. A. Oria of the committee on resolutions read the report, dwelling with great emphasis on the vital points, the reading of each paragraph being loudly applauded.

Resolutions Adopted.

The resolutions were passed after a warm discussion and were in part as follows:

"The Wisconsin Bankers' association congratulates the people of the state and nation upon the continued and unexampled prosperity of the country. We believe this is largely attributable to the excellence of our financial system, the stability of our financial institutions, the unequivocal adoption of the gold standard, and the practical abandonment of the contention for a change to a silver basis. All our money is readily convertible into and is worth its face in gold."

"Our currency is ample to supply our financial needs and is obtainable at rates of interest lower than ever before. Our system is a growth. Commencing in the dark days of the rebellion, it has been modified and conformed to the changing wants of the country during a period of wonderful development and growth."

Oppose Radical Changes.

"Further modifications and changes will doubtless be necessary in the future. These should be made in a conservative spirit and only when their wisdom is apparent and the necessity obvious. We are opposed to radical changes based upon new and untried theories as unnecessary and fraught with danger."

"Resolved, That we are opposed to the Fowler bill and all legislation tending to the substitution of branch banks for our present independent system of banking, and our representatives in congress are urged to oppose such proposed legislation."

"Resolved, That we are opposed to any law, tending toward the substitution of asset currency for the present national bank circulation."

DECIDE GUILTY BY ODD OR EVEN

Last Grain in Pint of Corn Determines Verdict of Jury.

Barbourville, Ky., Aug. 14.—Grains of corn drawn one at a time from a heap sentenced Riley Lindsey to the penitentiary for a year, but the jury's verdict was set aside. Lindsey was tried for the robbery of F. P. Owens. The jury was equally divided. Finally it was agreed that a leader from each side draw a grain alternately from a pint of corn, thus to decide by odd or even whether Lindsey should go free or to prison. He was found guilty. Some members of the jury filed affidavits explaining how a verdict was arrived at. Judge Faulkner thereupon set the verdict aside and granted a motion for a new trial.

It is believed that a consolidation of Southern railroad interests will mark the return of J. P. Morgan.

Risking Life

To make a living! And we stand and stare up at the man in the clouds, wondering that any man can be so foolhardy. But what of the business man, who has barely time to snatch a hasty meal, and gulps down a lunch of pie and milk in a few minutes? He too, is risking his life to make a living. Life is sustained by food properly digested and assimilated. The result of hasty eating and irregular meals is "weak" stomach, and a "weak" stomach means a weak man. When the stomach is "weak" the food eaten is not properly digested and cannot be perfectly assimilated, so that there is a daily loss of nutrition, which in time will result in physical collapse.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the assimilation of all the nutritive values of the food eaten, and so builds up the body into sound health and strength.

Mr. Ned Nelson, the celebrated Irish comedian and mimic, of 577 Broadway Street, Camden, N. J., writes: "We fulfilled an engagement twelve weeks and the constant traveling gave me a bad touch of that dreaded disease called dyspepsia. I had tried everything possible to cure it till last week while playing at the Keith's Hill Theater, Philadelphia, in the Nelson Trio, a professional friend of mine advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I tried it, and, thank God, will give results."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

the most scientific of all rowing—and watch the result. The scullers will take their boat along on an even keel, while the embryo sweeps will be lucky if they don't capsize. Sculling is unquestionably the foundation and maintenance of all rowing, and it is difficult to build if there is no foundation.

Phelps B. Hoyt of the Glenview (Chicago) Golf club and the present amateur champion of the west, is not playing up to his standard at present, but it is very likely that he will "pull himself together" in time for the late summer tourneys. Hoyt is a wonderfully accurate player when in form, and although his work in the recent amateur championship tourney held on the links of his own club was not of championship caliber, his real ability is sufficient to carry him through the year with a creditable record. Hoyt was defeated in the national tournament by his clubmate, Louis N. James, the twenty-year-old lad who finally captured the title.

Lake Winnebago, near Oshkosh, Wis., is one of the leading rendezvous in the west for yachtsmen. Racing interests at the picturesque sheet of water have experienced a revival during the last year or two and the present season bids fair to make a new record for activity.

The choosing of Oshkosh as the permanent place for holding the annual regatta of the Inland Lake association after this year has stimulated interest and exertion among the followers of yachting in these parts and given a double intent and scope to the present efforts of the club. Not only is the success of the current season to be looked after for its own sake, but also for its effect upon the sentiment of the Inland association; but arrangements must also be made for holding the great regatta of next year and for the entertainment of the large number of yachtsmen who will be in attendance. Oshkosh is known all over the country as a hospitable place. As a town to which to come "to have fun with the boys"

she has been famed in anecdote and song. Therefore she has a reputation to sustain, and she is determined to sustain it as far as the Inland Lake association regatta is concerned. Therefore the needs of both this year and next are being thoroughly regarded in the plans and operation of the club's present.

The Oshkosh Yacht club, which is one of the oldest in the northwest, having been organized in 1871, was reorganized for the season a few weeks ago with a very efficient complement of officers. Phil Sawyer, son of Edgar P.
Sawyer and grandson of the late United States Senator Sawyer, is commodore. Both he and his father are enthusiastic yachtsmen. They brought out the two lotus, both of which were fast boats, and did much to bring about the revival.

The annual regatta of the Oshkosh club will be held Aug. 13, 14 and 15.
Prominent in the list of entries is the Caroline, one of the "lark" class of craft, not much to look at, but marvels of speed. These boats are very popular throughout the country, every club from the Atlantic to the Pacific numbering them with their fleets.

Cresceus, the champion trotting stallion, who last year trotted at the Belmont track at Philadelphia in 2:04 1/2, will try to lower his mark at Belmont on Sept. 17. This announcement is made by the racing committee of the Pennsylvania Road Drivers' association.

Onward Silver, 2:08, the great grand circuit campaigner, has been bred to thirty-five mares this season.

Dan Patch, 2:00 1/2, by Joe Patchen, 2:01 1/2, Dan Zellen, by Wilkesberry, is still unbeaten, having never lost but one heat during his career on the grand circuit.

At the top of the dummy is a spring process of bringing down a player in action is obtained.

That a man who has a knowledge of sculling enjoys an advantage over the one who does not when the two undertake to master sweep rowing is a fact which will admit of little argument.
Unlike ten years ago, when there were the Cook, Courtney and Ward strokes, there is now no clearly defined stroke.
Each college coach seemingly is striving to accomplish one thing which is a necessity for a successful crew—i. e., to catch the water together, to pull the eight oars through with one swish and to recover in such a uniform manner as not to retard the run of the boat.

A man who has a knowledge of sculling has mastered watermanship, an accomplishment essentially necessary for a good sweep. He knows just how high to raise his hands on the catch and how much to lower them on the finish so as to make a clean recovery, and his experience in a single shell, so cranky in comparison with an eight, enables him always to do his share in keeping the boat on an even keel.

When it is considered that Courtney,
Hannan, Ward, Dempsey, Galanaugh,
Ten Eyck and others of lesser reputation are scullers of prominence and that they have applied their own ideas to sweep rowing with a great measure of success, it would seem to indicate that sculling is the real alphabet of rowing. Of this number perhaps Dempsey is the best illustration. In selecting the Vesper eight coared shell crew that went to Paris

he chose eight scullers, and the crew was regarded as one of the fastest ever sent from this country.

That sculling is a necessity before a man may consider himself an accomplished oarsman may be summed up as follows: Take four men, two who have sculled and two who have not, put each couple in a pair oared shell—

CIRCUS BILL CARS STOP OVER HERE

They Will Stay Over Until After Carnival Week to Boom the Show.

Advertising car number one of the Forepaugh & Sells circus has been sidetracked in this city to attend to the advance advertising for the performance that will be given on September fourth. A force of twenty-two men, representing the show, are in the city with the car, and will probably stay here until the end of next week if not later. Some of the men expressed indignation in the way in which the Elks' carnival had monopolized the advertising space, and asserted that a number of the circus bills had been torn down and the Morris & Berger bills pasted in their place. The circus men, however, feel confident of making a good showing with their own display boards and color bills.

Throughout the next week a special effort will be made to impress upon the carnival throng that the greatest show of the season will take place during the first week of September. Novel advertising schemes of various kinds will be employed and the large force of men, all of them efficient advertisers, will show what can be done to bring a big entertainment before the public. The men expect to remain here until two more cars have been brought for their use. At the end of the carnival week the force will be transferred to Freeport where they will bill that city.

STOLE PANTS AT ZIEGLER'S STORE

Two Thieves Worked a Smooth Game on Mr. Harry Morse.

It developed yesterday afternoon after James Daly and John O'Brien, the pants thieves had been sentenced that they also stole some pants from T. J. Ziegler. One pair of the pants which they sold to a man residing near the North-Western round house were recovered by the police.

A Smooth Game. Two pair worked a smooth game at Ziegler's. They went into the store when no one was there besides Harry Morse and the bookkeeper. Daly stayed near the front of the store while O'Brien went into the basement with Mr. Morse to get a pair of overalls. He looked over about all the goods in the basement and finally told Morse that he only had thirty cents. Morse told him to get out of the store if he did not want to buy anything. When they came up Daly had left with his plunder he having had plenty of time to make a lift and get out.

Suspicious Arroused. Morse was suspicious of the men as they did not both enter the store at the same time he did not think they were together.

ARE TRIMMING UP THE CITY HALL

Workmen Are Outlining the Stone on the Cities' Building.

Workmen are today engaged in outlining the stones on the city hall. When this is completed it will add very materially to the exterior appearance of the building. The iron stair way and marble tracks will soon be in place.

Inside Work. Although the work of finishing up the interior of the building is progressing rapidly it will be some time before the offices will be ready for occupancy. The furnishings for the rooms have not yet been purchased and will be some time before these are ready.

Are Investigating. The building committee have been looking this matter up to see just what will be needed in the different rooms.

CHICAGO MAN LEADER OF A MOB

Parent Seeks to Kill Person Who Assaulted His Daughter.

Nebraska City, Neb., Aug. 14.—Frank Williamson of Chicago led a mob against John Wood, who was arrested here charged with having assaulted Williamson's 13-year-old daughter. The latter is visiting her grandparents here. Learning that Wood was released, the enraged parent organized a posse. Wood took refuge in a store, to which the mob tried in vain to gain entrance. The police finally dispersed the crowd and took Wood into the country to prevent a lynching.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS PARADE AT 'FRISCO

Picturesque and Creditable Procession Is Reviewed by Major General Carnahan and Staff.

San Francisco, Aug. 14.—The parade of the Uniformed Rank of the Knights of Pythias thrust aside the business of the supreme lodge yesterday. Although the session reconvened in the forenoon, nothing of importance was transacted, some minor resolutions being presented and discussed at length.

The parade of the knights was picturesque and creditable to the order. The local police force headed the procession, and following came Major General Carnahan and staff. Many states were represented in the ranks, and the showing of numerical strength made by California was very gratifying to the fraternity of this state. The knights were reviewed by General Carnahan, Supreme Chancellor Fetters and the representatives of the supreme lodge.

GENERAL J. H. SMITH IS DANGEROUSLY ILL

Sudden Collapse of the Soldier Due to Severe Strain He Had Undergone During Samar Campaign.

Portsmouth, Ohio, Aug. 14.—General Jacob H. Smith collapsed suddenly and lies at the house of his brother-in-law, Judge J. W. Bannon, in a critical condition.

The general had been in ill health since before the court-martial proceedings were instituted. He hoped the ocean voyage would restore his health, but in his weakened condition the severe nervous strain of subsequent events proved too much. He has been putting off the work of beginning his report to the War Department upon his campaign in Samar, hoping to feel stronger before undertaking the task. This has also been a severe strain.

The general has a high fever, a type of malaria frequent among our troops in Samar. He is in a highly nervous state, and attending physicians say he is in the gravest danger. His aged mother and his wife are with him constantly.
